DANIEL BOYD - Defendant, Pro Se;

Criminal No. 5:09-cr00216-FL-1

MOTION for DISCLOSURE of: GRAND JURY TRANSCRIPTS, BALLOT, or RECORD for INSPECTION; INDICTMENT; and CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

NOW COMES movant Daniel Boyd, acting in proper person, to respectfully request this Court to issue an "Order of Disclosure" for several essential documents pertaining to his criminal prosecution. The documents requested for disclosure are: grand jury hearing transcripts, ballot, or record for inspection; indictment pertaining to the criminal charge; and criminal complaint.

In support of the foregoing, the movant states the following facts:

I. REASONS (INJUSTICE ARGUMENT)

- a) Capital or infamous crimes may not be charged against any person without presentment of an indictment by a grand jury of his peers;
- b) Grand jury transcripts, ballots, and records must be available for inspection so as to determine the validity of those proceedings;
- c) An affidavit of criminal complaint is required to establish probable cause of any potential criminal conduct;
- d) Without an indictment, no jurisdiction is established;
- e) If jurisdiction is not established, no person may be detained;
- f) If the Rules of criminal procedure are significantly violated, a person's due process rights are violated;
- g) Due process includes "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" or "property" which are stripped by incarceration;
- h) Movant was convicted of CONSPIRACY TO PROVIDE MATERIAL TERRORISTS & MURDER 18 United States Code, section 2339, subsection (A);
- i) Without disclosure of the requested documents, movant cannot ascertain whether or not his due process rights were upheld;
- j) Their absence on the court's docket indicates injustice;
- k) The hearings pursuant to some or all of these documents and their inclusion on the record were not docketed by the court, and;
- l) Movant is financially incapable of procuring these documents without the court's assistance.

II. REQUEST for RELIEF

Movant requests the following documents for disclosure:

- a) Grand Jury Transcripts;
- b) Grand Jury Ballot;

c) Grand Jury Record;

d) Indictment, duly endorsed by its foreperson and the United States Attorney, and:

e) Criminal Complaint.

III . GROUNDS

A potential injustice is suspected and is argued. Movant believes that his prosecution may have been in violation of the constitution's Fourth Amendment. If the required documents for a valid arrest were not present, Federal Statutory rights were violated. The argument arises from the fact that some are currently not docketed in the court's record. A sound Affidavit of Criminal Complaint seems to be non-existent, according to the court's docket. Such an absence of Complaint would mean that essential facts constituting the jurisdiction to determine the charges are also absent. Under Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure Three (3) and Four (4), the purpose of such a Complaint is to enable the appropriate magistrate to determine whether the required probable cause to support a warrant exists. [Giordenello v. United States, 357 U.S. 480, 2 L. Ed. 2d 1503, 78 S. Ct. 1245]

The absence of those documents means that the government, in its prosecution, failed to comply with the rules prescribed under the authority of Congress. In the acts of June 29th, 1940 ch. 445, 18 USC (former) statute 687 and statute 3771, Congress detailed the proceedings in a criminal case prior to and including the verdict. By failing to comply, the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution and the laws of the United States are violated. Implicitly jurisdictional, the constitution states, "No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime unless on presentment of Indictment by a Grand Jury..." Therefore, movant had a right to a grand jury indictment. Yet, the record of the court docket contains no account of such a hearing. Therefore, without disclosure of the records, it is impossible to determine whether movant was ever actually indicted. In Ex parte Bain 121 U.S. 1, 7 S. Ct. 781, 30 L. Ed. 849, (1887), the Supreme Court held that District Courts have no jurisdiction to charge a person if material complications abound vis-a-vis the grand jury's impaneling or competency on finding the indictment. A trial on such an indictment is void.

It is conceivable that the Court lacked authority to performed the functions authorized by law in its criminal proceedings, as delineated in Rule Six (6) of Federal Criminal Procedure. That would mean that movant was deprived of his Constitutional and Statutory rights as of July the 27th, 2009. He is an American citizen. Disclosure is required as it is not possible to determined whether the arrest conformed to Rule (9) of Federal Criminal Procedure, Arrest Warrant or Summons or Indictment or Information.

If no indictment can be produced, the essential elements of Fed.F.Cr.P 6(a) are not affirmatively demonstrated. A lawfully impaneled jury of twelve must concur with the indictment, as in subsection 6(c), for it to reach the status of "true bill." The purpose of an independent grand jury is not only to investigate possible criminal conduct but also to act as a "protector of citizens from arbitrary and oppressive governmental action." The grand jury's explicit purpose is to "stand between the prosecutor and the accused," determining the legitimacy of charges or whether it "is dictated by malice or personal ill." Cf. Hale v. Henkel 201 U.S. 42 (1906). Former Supreme Court Justice A. Scalia expounds, in United States v. Williams, 504 U.S. 36 (1992), that the grand jury is the equivalent of a fourth branch of government not to be tampered with by any other branch.

Movant was never accorded the right to inspect the grand jury ballot or record, which indicates the exact number of jurors in concurrence with finding the indictment. It is unknown if such a record was properly maintained. The docket sheet for the court does not indicate that the grand jury ever convened, in fact, and no entry for it is evident. Douglas Oil Co. of California v. Petrol Stops Northwest, 441, U.S. 211, 60 L. Ed. 2d 156, 99 S. Ct. 1667 (1979) determined that material sought to prevent possible injustice in another judicial proceeding has greater precedence than whatever need exists for continued secrecy. The request for such material must be structured to encompass only the material needed.

The Constitution provides that, "no person shall be deprived of life or liberty without due process of law." Movant prepares to file a civil action regarding his incarceration but will be unable to do so without the requested documents. Absolute immunity defenses are intended to be circumvented by the actual conduct of the judicial officers acting in violation of Federal Statutes, as in Stump v. Sparkman 435 U.S. 349, 356-357, 55 L. Ed. 331, 98 S. Ct 1099 (1978). Injustice may abound without the disclosures. Pursuant to Rule 6(e) of Criminal Procedure, the Court must authorize disclosure at a time, in a manner, subject to any other conditions that directs a grand jury preliminary hearing, or another in conjunction with a judicial proceeding, if requested by a movant who demonstrates that a ground may exist to dismiss the indictment due to a matter occurring, or not occurring, before the grand jury.

Federal prisoners may obtain transcripts and other documents pursuant to the Court Reporter Act, 28 U.S.C. section 753(f). The claims raised in this motion meet clear standard for not being frivolous and the documents to be decided. Furthermore, the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. section 552, requires that the government to disclose all documents. The movant is financially incapable of procuring these documents and is in need of them in order to establish the level of injustice perpetrated.

The United States Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina hereby responds to Defendant Boyd's March 29, 2019 pro-se filing entitled "Motion for disclosure of: Grand Jury Transcripts, Ballot, or Record for Inspection; Indictment; and Criminal Complaint".¹

ARGUMENT AND ANALYSIS

Defendant's motion is a frivolous filing making absurd statements and demanding documents without providing any applicable statutory or legal authority to support these claims. At best, Defendant Boyd has – albeit offhandedly – made a claim under the Freedom of Information Act.

Defendant's motion asserts that the record of his case contains no indication that a criminal complaint was ever filed which would thus display a violation of the Defendant's Fourth Amendment rights. Defendant additionally seems to assert that he is unaware of the existence of an indictment as well, the lack of which would result in various constitutional deprivations. This is a frivolous grievance. As the Defendant well knows, no complaint exists; nor is one required because he was indicted before a grand jury in the Eastern District of North Carolina, which was then superseded twice. See Indictment at DE 3, Superseding Indictment at DE 145, and Second Superseding Indictment at DE 670. The Defendant was presented a copy of his indictment at his initial appearance, waived appearance for superseding indictments and plead guilty to Counts One and Two of the Second Superseding Indictment before this very Court. In fact, as this Court is also well aware, Defendant Boyd later testified during the trial of co-conspirators to this very fact and acknowledged these indictments and his guilty plea. Simply put, the Indictments are public records in existence.

Defendant's motion next complains that he was "never accorded the right to inspect the grand jury ballot or record," and that "the docket sheet for the court does not indicate that the grand jury was ever convened; in fact, and no entry for it is evident." It is unclear exactly what ballot or record defendant seems to believe exists that he has a right to. In any case, the Government would point to the Indictment, Superseding Indictment, and Second Superseding Indictment – each of which were signed by the foreperson of the Grand Jury and filed with the Court. This is obviously evidence of the Grand Jury's convening and quorum decision supporting charges by probable cause.

Despite this, the Defendant illogically asserts that these claims thus raise necessity for this Court to authorize disclosure of Grand Jury Records. Grand Jury matters are protected from disclosure under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure (FRCP) 6(e). One exception applies allowing for a Court to authorize disclosure when a defendant "shows that a ground may exist to dismiss the indictment because of a matter that occurred before the grand jury." FRCP 6(e)(3)(E)(ii). In the present instance, there has been no showing of any ground to dismiss the indictment. In fact, the defendant has apparently claimed there is no indictment in the first place. Alternatively, the Defendant has – without a scintilla of evidence – imagined that a sufficient quorum did not vote on the indictment. This is far from showing by any legal standard that "a ground may exist" to dismiss the indictment in this case. Creative imagination is not the basis by which such a ground is to be displayed to this Court.

Defendant next cites to the Court Reporter Act under 28 U.S.C. § 753(f) as authority for the claim that a federal prisoner may "obtain transcripts and other documents," but the plain reading of this provision is that it regards the payment of fees for such transcripts and other documents otherwise properly sought. It is not an independent basis upon which to rely for provision of the documents. In this instance, it would only be applicable if the Court were to find cause in exception to non-disclosure and authorize disclosure of Grand Jury matters. Moreover, it would only be applicable insofar as relating to who would bear the costs associated with fees for transcripts. And, only if the Court were to certify that the "appeal is not frivolous (but presents a substantial questions)". However, there is no reason to find an exception to the grand jury secrecy, there are no transcripts at issue, this is not an appeal, and no substantial questions have been raised.

In the last two lines of his motion, Defendant notes, “[f]urthermore, the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. Section 552, requires that [sic] the government to disclose all documents. The movant is financially incapable of procuring these documents and is in need of them in order to establish the level of injustice perpetrated.” Thus, it would appear that the Defendant is attempting to make a FOIA claim to this Court for grand jury records – specifically for “grand jury ballot or record, which indicates the exact number of jurors in concurrence with the findings of the indictment,” in his case. If FOIA is a matter allowing for disclosure of what the Defendant is requesting, then it is peculiar to cite to FOIA in a motion to this court when there is no evidence that the Defendant has first made a FOIA claim upon the Department of Justice in accordance with well-publicized process for how to do so.² Under this process, there are provisions for submitting a claim, instances in which fees may be waived, and the ability to file administrative appeals. FOIA itself then provides requesters with the right to challenge an agency’s action on the request in federal court.

CONCLUSION

In summary, Defendant’s motion is frivolous due to claims that are clearly inapplicable and otherwise known to the Defendant. The claims presented provide no grounds to find an exception authorizing disclosure of grand jury matters. To the extent that the Defendant believes the Government to be in possession of documents that must be provided in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act, then he should apply that process to request such records from the agency believed to have said records. The Government additionally notes that while submitted and signed by Defendant Boyd, the motion at page three (3) also states that it was "prepared by Themba B. Sanganza, Human Rights Activist." This is not an attorney, seems to be a self-entitled "human rights activist," and appears to be an individual imprisoned with Defendant Boyd who is providing inaccurate legal advice to Defendant Boyd.³ For these reasons, the United States respectfully asserts that Defendant's pro-se motion should be denied.

ORDER

This matter comes now before the court upon motion of defendant Daniel Patrick Boyd filed March 25, 2019, on what appears to be a jailhouse form, circulated by another who calls himself a "Human Rights Activist." The movant complains some injustice is suspected to have been inflicted on substantive and/or procedural grounds, and, because of this, he is entitled to disclosure of specified case documents. It reads in opening part:

NOW COMES movant DANIEL BOYD, acting in proper person, to respectfully request this Court to issue an "Order of Disclosure" for several essential documents pertaining to his criminal prosecution. The documents requested for disclosure are: grand jury hearing transcripts, ballot, or record for inspection; indictment pertaining to the criminal charge; and criminal complaint.

(DE 2305, p. 1). The March 25, 2019, motion now before this court reads in conclusory part:

MOVANT REQUEST FOR GRAND JURY BALLOT OR RECORD, COURT DOCKET SHEET AND SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

Attention Court of the Clerk, please note this is an official affidavit Notice Pursuant to Rule 6(f) of Federal Rules Criminal Procedure to issue Movant Grand Jury Ballot or Record for Inspection, Court Docket Sheet and Superseding Indictment. Movant was never accorded the right to inspect the grand jury ballot or record including the number of jurors concurrence in finding the indictment, or if such record was properly maintained.

I respectfully request the Court to grant this request.

DE 2302). Interpreting the February 26, 2019, missive as a request for a copy of the docket sheet and superceding indictment, the clerk promptly responded, informing Mr. Boyd that he would be required to pay a total of $28.00 for these items. (DE 2303). Shortly thereafter, Mr. Boyd's wife wrote to the clerk, reiterating her husband's request for the docket sheet and superceding indictment, and enclosing a money order on his behalf in the amount of $28.00. (DE 2304).

Around two weeks later, payment having been made for the docket sheet and a copy of the superceding indictment, mailed by the clerk to Mr. Boyd, the instant motion appeared. (DE 2305). It states on its face, as noted above, that it was prepared by one Themba B. Sanganeza, whom the government identifies in its response as a convicted fraudster incarcerated with Mr. Boyd, providing, as is plain, inaccurate legal advice to him. (DE 2311).

The court is mindful of those who prey upon their fellow inmates to gain influence or favor by promoting futile legal strategies. As Mr. Boyd is aware, he can receive upon payment copies of court records. Without more, as the government notes, he is not entitled to disclosure of grand jury records.

The judgment against Mr. Boyd, long ago made final, reflects on its face Mr. Boyd's receipt of a well-deserved substantial cut in time for his cooperation with and assistance to the government in this very serious case. The Federal Bureau of Prisons reports this date that Mr. Boyd, who came into the custody of the United States of America on July 27, 2009, is anticipated to be released April 7, 2025.

There being no basis in law or fact for the relief requested, without more, the motion, (DE 2305), must be and is DENIED.

SO ORDERED, this the 17th day of April, 2019.

I certify the foregoing to be a true and correct copy of the original.

Civil No. _____ (To be provided by the Clerk of Courts)

"Rebellion to tyranny is obedience to God."
- Benjamin Franklin

COMPLAINT PURSUANT to the [Freedom of Information Act, Title 5 USC sections 552, 552(a)(4)(B), 552(a)(6)(C)(i)] and [Presidential Memorandum 74 Fed. Reg. 4683]

I. PREAMBLE

The United States of America is a nation of constitutional rights functioning in the form of civil liberties and the laws necessary to uphold them. The daily operations, legitimacy, and even very existence of this nation are based upon the constitution. The lives of its' citizens are intertwined with its' application. Every governmental or civil action must be in accordance, first and foremost, with the entirety of the constitution and all of the civil liberties guaranteed within.

II. JURISDICTION and VENUE

2. NOW COMES DANIEL BOYD, acting in proper person as the plaintiff herein, currently being held unlawfully and unconstitutionally within a Bureau of Prisons facility. The plaintiff expressly requests a total waiver of court fees in this matter due, in pertinent part, that he is actually innocent and is being denied access to records and information requested. That information requested has not been authentically declared legally exempt from disclosure by law. He brings this suit pursuant to [Title 5 USC section 552(a)(4)(B) and 552(a)(6)(C)(i)] and the [Presidential Executive Order/Memorandum 74 Fed. Reg. 4683] signed on January 21, 2009]. All of the defendants are employed within the jurisdiction of this court and have mailing addresses in Washington, the District of Columbia. Therefore, this suit is properly brought in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

III . PLAINTIFF

3. The plaintiff was, at all relevant times, prosecuted in the United States.

IV . DEFENDANTS

4. The aforementioned defendants are legally responsible for withholding documents necessary for any criminal defense.

V . RELIEF REQUESTED

5. The plaintiff seeks the declaratory and injunctive relief authorized by the constitution pursuant to [Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65].

6. The plaintiff requests that this judiciary look at the specific acts challenged, not the judicial proceedings preceding them.

7. Plaintiff requests disclosure and/or receipt, without charge, of:

a) Certified copy of his plea agreement;

b) Affidavit of criminal complaint;

c) Information filed by the government;

d) Arrest warrant or summons;

e) Letter of Certificate of concurrence;

f) Affidavit of Complaint of Probable Cause Hearing;

g) Grand Jury transcripts, ballot, or record for inspection, and;

h) All indictments, duly endorsed by their foreperson and the United States Attorney, or colloquy of defendant being advised of his right to a true-bill indictment and waiving it.

8. Plaintiff requests that he is granted assertion of his constitutional rights so as to pursue justice and stop the defendants from maintaining control of the requested documents - if they do exist.

9. A review of this matter to determine the truth as to whether the documents requested actually exist or not and to determine the authenticity of any documents that are disclosed - as great reason exists to believe that they may be forged or fabricated.

VI . STATEMENT of FACTS and INJUSTICE ARGUMENT

10. The plaintiff reiterates his specific request for full disclosure of information from the government. His efforts to utilize the Freedom of Information Act appear to have been either refused, neglected, hidden, or ignored by the government. Plaintiff requested the documents twice (from the clerk of courts then FOIA), then filed a "Motion for Disclosure" in his criminal case (Criminal No. 5:09-CR-216-FL) to no avail, or even response. Despite these requests, the plaintiff was never accorded the right to inspect the documents. All of the requested records, documents, data, negotiable instruments, files, answers, response that would demonstrate whether or not the plaintiff is held lawfully were never presented upon request, said to be nonexistent, or even commented upon. Upon inspecting the court's docket, it does not seem that some or any of the hearings required to present these materials ever occurred. Plaintiff argues that he is held unconstitutionally and unlawfully.

11. Movant contends that the defendants acted to disguise that the court and its' officers acted in a clear absence of subject-matter jurisdiction and judicial power [USCS Const. Article III, 2 CL.2]. They exercised power in a manner that is forbidden by Article III and that conduct has been hidden by the defendants' refusal to disclose these documents pursuant to FOIA. The clause of Article III stipulates that judicial power is only extended to cases in law and equity, arising under the constitution, the laws of the United States, and any treaties made under their authority. The Supreme Court emphasized that jurisdiction in Federal Courts is governed by [28 United States Code section 1251] and that it is, essentially, the authority conferred by Congress to the courts to decide a particular kind of legal question, or case, in one manner or the other [Hogans v. Lavine, 415 US 528, 538 94 S. Ct. 137 2 39 L. Ed. 2 d 577 (1974)].

12. The defendants have hidden a violation of the laws most wholesome and necessary for public good. They hid the prosecution's, judge's, and involved parties' failure to assent to the Fifth Amendment's clause which states that, "[n]o person shall be held to answer for a capital or infamous crime unless on presentment of indictment by a grand jury of his peers." No court of this land has the authority to try a person without such an indictment. Knowing that these proceedings have not occurred in the plaintiff's criminal case, the defendants have refused to disclose those documents which demonstrate so. The prosecution failed to comply with the rules prescribed under the authority of Congress. In the [Acts of June 29th, 1950 ch. 445 18 USC (former) statute 687 and statute 3771] Congress detailed the proceedings in a criminal case - prior to and including a verdict.

13. Disclosure has not been made by the government to these documents essential to any criminal defense. It has the burden of proof, as indicated by the law maxim, "silence is equivalent to fraud." The documents requested and the subject thereof are delineated herein and are specific to each specific agency/branch of the United States government of which requests were sent to. These requested records stem from the plaintiff's "conviction," if it can be deemed such without the documents. He is a defendant-in-error without them.

14. The Plaintiff directs this court to make a finding of fact and law to establish whether the government even had probable cause to arrest him, subject-matter jurisdiction over him, an indictment which is facially "fair" standing upon the requirements of the Constitution's third article - based on the fact that these essential documents which supposedly support the claim to arrest, hold, convict, sentence, and imprison the plaintiff do not appear to exist. They do not appear to ever have existed; based on the court's docket and multiple outright ignored requests.

15. In [Gerstein v. Pugh, 420 US 103 (1975)] the Supreme Court rejected the contention, "[t]hat prosecutor's decision to file an information is itself a determination of probable cause that furnishes sufficient reason to detain a defendant pending trial." They elaborated that, "Although a conscientious decision that the evidence warrants prosecution affords a measure of protection against unfounded detention, we do not think prosecutorial judgment standing alone meets the requirements of the Fourth Amendment. Indeed, we think the Court's previous decisions compel disapproval of [such a] procedure." Being held without due process is itself a due-process violation which fundamentally invalidates all subsequent proceedings.

16. [Albrecht v. United States, 273 US 1, 5, 47 S. Ct. 250, 251, 71 L. Ed. 505 (1927)] held that an arrest warrant issued solely upon a United States Attorney's information was invalid because the accompanying affidavits were fundamentally defective. Therefore, an arrest based on such documentation is invalid, unlawful, and illegal under the Fourth Amendment [Ex Parte United States, 287 US 241, 250 (1931)]. A properly constituted jury must determine probable cause and an indictment must be returned in open court, otherwise it is "unfair upon its face." Therefore, the plaintiff is entitled to receive his materials.

17. The Executive Office for the United States Attorney claims that there was an indictment, however, they do not provide evidence that there was any Criminal Complaint or Sworn Affidavit made by the arresting officer and presented before a grand jury. Most of the requested documents are either undisclosed or heavily redacted, seeming to indicate that proper procedures were never instituted. There is no indication that facts were presented before a grand jury for them to ever produce an actual indictment.

VII . LEGAL CLAIM STATEMENT

18. Plaintiff seeks disclosure of these documents or a thorough investigation as to how it is possible to obtain an indictment, or an arrest warrant, without the essential due-process proceedings necessary to meet the basic standards of all "free" nations. It does not seem that an actual criminal complaint, magistrate complaint, or sworn affidavit was ever filed prior to capturing the plaintiff. It is strange that finalizing signatures, which make documents reach the status of "true bill," are not present on the Return of the Judgment and Commitment Order, indictment, and other important documents. The plaintiff still seeks a lawful mittimus.

19. The plaintiff asserts that these documents simply do not exist or exist in a form inconsistent with the laws derived from the constitution. He is being held unlawfully. The documents which do exist are essentially forged to illegally incarcerate him in the Bureau of Prisons and are a direct result of vindictive prosecution. [18 USC section 1623(e)] and [18 USC section 3621(c)] have been blatantly violated in this case, and those of many others'. The procedures used to put the plaintiff in prison were not constitutional and violated [28 USC section 2071(b)] as the District court totally lacked subject-matter jurisdiction.

20. The [Presidential Executive Order Memorandum 74 Fed. Reg. 4683 signed on January 21st, 2009] issued by Barrack Obama indicates that the government must disclose this information. If it is non-existent, the court must act accordingly and issue a declaratory order to release the defendant. [Frank v. Delaware, 438 US 154, 165 (1978)] holds that statements that are knowingly false or that exhibit a reckless disregard for the truth must not be used by the Magistrate to determine probable cause. The Plaintiff contends that the United States District Court never had lawful jurisdiction over his person, being, interests, life, liberty, or property, as there were never those documents essential for a valid criminal prosecution as required by the [Rules of Federal Criminal Procedure].

21. A Federal criminal prosecution begins with an affidavit of criminal complaint which is then brought before a grand jury. The grand jury convenes and must concur upon findings of criminal activity for an indictment to reach the status of "true bill." United States courts do not have subject-matter jurisdiction to try a person without that process. These processes were instituted by the architects of the constitution so as to protect the masses from partial or vindictive prosecution by an official elite. Whatever verdicts are issued in total disregard of those laws are essential nullities and must be expunged without day. Without the oath of affirmation, a Complaint, which is presumed to specify the key elements of a crime, is null and void. Until those threshold requirements are met, it is not in pursuit of liberty or justice if a person is detained.

22. It is evident that there was an absence of probable cause in the preponderant criminal proceedings. The plaintiff requests a review of this matter to determine whether these documents ever existed. Federal prisoners may obtain transcripts and other documents pursuant to the [Court Reporter Act, 28 USC section 753(f)]. The claims raised herein meet the clear standard of being meritorious and require the documents to be decided. The plaintiff is financially incapable of procuring these documents and is in need of them in order to establish the level of injustice perpetrated.

EXHIBIT - REFERENCE CASES

The court dockets and subsequent materials to the following cases are presented to demonstrate how endemic these due-process failures are to the current criminal system. They span various districts across the nation. Each case, however, is unique and presents its' own serious issues that fundamentally return to subject-matter jurisdiction over-reach due to "short-cuts" taken by prosecutors. Those "short-cuts" circumvent constitutional law.

a) _____ _____ District of _____ _____-CR-_____-_____-_____

This is an example of criminal procedure done correctly. The court's docket mentions all of the required hearings and all documents are signed. When requested by the defendant in this case, he was quickly furnished with a copy of all requested materials. (No totally correctly processed case has been located as of this time.)

b) Najeem Moore
Eastern District of Wisconsin
2:13-CR-00084-LA-1

Moore was indicted then prosecuted later on a second, superseding, indictment. The court then accepted a waiver of indictment, suggesting that the initial indictment used to incarcerate the defendant was known to be invalid.

c) Dennis Goggel
Southern District of New York
1:13-CR-00521-L75

An International citizen arrested in Kenya, Africa, without a criminal complaint, indictment, or even information. He was extradited to the United States and sentenced under its' penal code without being afforded any of its' rights.

d) Roy Hale
Southern District of New York
1:92-CR-00091-RJD

Hale was prosecuted on a superseding indictment missing signatures by both the United States Attorney and the grand jury foreman. Despite prodding the court, it has been unable to demonstrate that any grand jury hearing ever occurred or that an United States Attorney validated the indictment. The government refuses to disclose the documents and continues to file frivolous, illegal, dismissals.

e) Ali Shukri Amin
Eastern District of Virginia
1:15-CR-00164-CMH-1

Arrested on a "search and seizure" without a criminal complaint, indictment, or information; as a legal juvenile. He was held for over one-hundred days under torturous conditions. The prosecution then presented information to the courts, without his consensual waiver of indictment, only after a guilty plea. The government refuses to issue a warrant of arrest or any of these other documents.

f) Munir Abdulkader
Southern District of Ohio
1:16-CR-00019-MRB-1

A victim of entrapment, held in custody for over thirty-four months before being arraigned on any criminal complaint. He was arrested without an arrest warrant, which was filed and returned served the next day. His counsel filed ten waivers in collusion with the prosecution. Kept in solitary confinement under communication restrictions for almost the entire period during which the major decisions regarding his criminal case were made, without his consent. The government refuses to acknowledge his requests for documentation.

g) Daniel Boyd
North Carolina
5:09-CR-00216-FL

Arrested on an indictment and put into solitary confinement for over two years. He was prosecuted and convicted on a second, superseding indictment, which was never presented to a grand jury. The signature is redacted on the only indictment received by the courts, which was dropped and has no significance. The government refuses to disclose the pertinent documents.

h) James O. Johnson
District of Maryland
8:09-CR-00085-DKC

Arrested without a criminal complaint, which was filed after his arrest. Held in custody on false-pretense indictments filed as information, then the court filed a waiver of indictment much later.
